Expected benefits and impact for the stakeholders involved

Enhanced visibility of compliance with sustainability requirements by industry actors/partners along the entire value chain

Enhanced traceability of the social/environmental/ethical attributes of product(s)/materials along the value chain; for example, for origin, quality, sustainability performance, and compliance with health and safety requirements for consumers and workers

Enhanced environmental and socially responsible consumption and production, and circularity of the value chain, that may be relevant to and inspire other countries and industry actors/partners

Management of reputational risk for manufacturers, brands and retailers who are selling the products concerned

Improved working conditions for workers along the value chain and, particularly, those who work for "suppliers to suppliers" in parts of the value chain that today are often "hidden"

Stakeholders involved

Business and industry associations

Consumers and consumer associations

Local authorities

Non-governmental organizations (NGOs)

Universities

How has this UNECE-UN/CEFACT Call to Action contributed to strategic engagement and/or public awareness in support of your commitment?

The ecosystem of companies supporting the effort of building more transparent and traceable supply chains, is becoming each day more relevant in Chile due to the Atacama Desert textile crisis. We expect that with our participation in UNECE we could support with solutions to reverse this crisis.
